Masks and Faces at the Barbier-Mueller Museum

Masque
Ghana, Fanti
Bois, clous, fibres végétales

The exhibition Masques à démasquer brings together 84 exhibits from around the world. Here, a carnival mask by Jean Tinguely stands alongside an ancient African mask, a Japanese demon encounters an ice hockey goalkeeper, and a diving helmet from 1976 brings to mind the novels of Jules Verne. You may wish to read on here, and for now - some photos.
